CULTURAL HISTORY

19 The Hanseatic City of Limbaži: you can easily move around the historic centre on foot. The radial network of streets in Limbaži has remained from as far back as the Middle Ages. The centre is made up of 18th century wooden buildings interspersed with 19th century tenements. The Old Town is also home to a 17th century Lutheran church and the largest Orthodox church in Vidzeme outside of Riga (1903). See the Old Fire Station, the Old Town Hall with wall paintings from the late 18th century.
